AT DAVIS THEATRE Motion Pictures Are Shown in Double Bill.

Dalton, in Love Me, was shown at the Davis theatre Thursday afternoon and evening and will continue the last half of the week. Miss Dalton is seen in a role which is different from her ordinary character parts and she is none the less charming. The story is a society drama dealing with a western girl who wins her way into the hearts of her husband's exclusive family. Others appearing in the cast are Jack Holt, William Conklin, Doreas Ma-thews and Elinor Hancock. The second chapter of the Son of Democracy was shown entitled The Call to Arms. The picture shows Abraham Lincoln calling for men to defend the nation and there is a striking resemblance to President Wilson's situation.

Another feature on the bill is The Primal Lure, featuring William S. Hart in a stirring drama of the north-west. A Current Events film con-cludes the bill.
